Special meeting of the Franklin County Bar Association held in the Court Room, Chambersburg, Pa., on Tuesday, November 12th, 1935, at 3:00 o'clock P. M.,

Those present were J. A. Stuite, President, John W. Hoke, Edmund C. Wingerd, Wm R.
Davison, A. J. White Hutton, Chas. N. Clippinger, John R. Jackson, Judge Watson R. Davison, John M. D. Sharpe, Paul M. Crider, George E.
Wenger, Geo. W. Atherton, Edwin D. Stuite and J. Glenn Benedict.

The meeting was called to order by J. A.
Stuite, President.

It was stated that the purpose of the meeting was to take proper action upon the death of Andrew Gregg McLaughan, who died on Friday, November 8, 1935, after more than sixty-two years in active practice at this Bar and called upon the resolutions Committee for a report.

Edmund C. Wingerd, Chairman of the resolutions Committee, read the resolution which had been prepared and moved its adoption.

The resolution is as follows:

Whereas, Andrew Gregg McLaughan, the eldest member of the Franklin County Bar Association, has, in the providence of God entered into rest, we, the members of the Bar, take this opportunity of expressing our deep sorrow because of his death and our most sincere sympathy for his family.

On June 3, 1873, a young man, the son of an old Franklin County family, was admitted to this Bar. Sixty-two years have come and gone since that important event in his life. During that time the social and economic life of this Country have changed greatly. Great developments in science, transportation, communication, government and business have occurred. During these sixty-two years Andrew Gregg Mc-Lanahan practiced law in his native town of Greencastle in his own quiet, yet competent and efficient way, fully cognizant of the great changes and developments which were going on, but undisturbed and unchanged by them.

Without political ambition and with no desire for fame, he was content to be Counselor, advisor and friend to three generations of the people of Greencastle and the surrounding townships. Deservedly, he held their confidence and esteem, and his counsel was sound and his advice wise. Never a trial lawyer, he was the highest type of solicitor and typified the best in that fine class of country lawyers who, skilled and careful in their practice and of scrupulous honesty, are the strength and balance wheel of their communities. Any man who, like Mr. Mc-Lanahan, practices law for sixty-two years without his ability or integrity being questioned, deserves a place in that Hall of Fame where those who have been true to their profession and their fellowmen are found.

In the death of Mr. Mc-Lanahan, the Franklin County Bar has lost an esteemed and worthy member and we, its members, a good friend. Words are inadequate to express our feelings and we can only say that we are sorry that he is gone, glad for the pleasant memories of our association with him and hopeful that others may be as worthy of their calling as was he of his.

To his family, we again express our sincere sympathy in this sad hour.
