

November 21, 1956

Virginia State Bar
 by. President the duty of protect the
 in such

of Rudolph M. instructed members of the ciation of the County Bar
 Amendments.
 returned.

Minutes of a special meeting of the Franklin Co. Bar Association held in the Court Room, Franklin County Court House, Chambersburg, Penna., November 21, 1956, at 1:00 o'clock P.M.

The meeting was called to order by the President, J. Glenn Benedict.

The following members were present: Thomas J. MacBride, Lawrence A. Ziper, Stenger Dicht, Thomas N. Humelsine, Thomas B. Steiger, John R. Lushley, Jr., Anson B. Good, Ray J. I.
 Angle, John McEl Sharpe, Jr., George S. Black, James A. Strite, Daniel W. Long, H. J. Keller, Edwin D. Strite, Sr., Ray S. Maxwell, Edmund C. Wingerd, Jr., Edmund C. Wingerd, Sr., Paul M.
 Criden, John McEl Sharpe, Sr., Paul J. Mawer, Rudolph M. Wertime, J. Stewart Glenn, Albert Strite, J. Glenn Benedict, John W. Keller, Edwin D. Strite, Jr., George C. Wenger, Thomas K.
 Scheller and Judge Chauncey M. Depuy.

At the opening of the meeting the President announced that the Association had gathered together to consider a resolution to be offered on the death of William C. Laylett. Paul M. Criden, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee then read the Resolution, a copy of which is attached hereto and moved the adoption of the Resolution.

The Resolution was seconded by John McEl Sharpe, Sr., who commented on the fact that Mr. Laylett had excelled in the trial of criminal cases and had appeared in most of the important cases of such nature in Franklin County. He also said Mr. Laylett was well-liked for his graciousness and that he was always obliging, fair, friendly, and honest in his dealing with other attorneys. Mr. Sharpe suggested the entire Bar would do well to emulate Mr. Hazlett's methods of dealing with fellow attorneys. Judge Edmund C. Wingard also seconded the motion and commented that the Bar had lost a valuable member, a good lawyer, and an exceptionally likable person and that he personally had lost a good friend. Edwin D. Strute, Sr. seconded the motion remarking on Mr. Hazlett's high standards of professional integrity and skill, and that he was gifted in the qualities of a good trial lawyer. George S. Black also seconded the resolution endorsing the previous sentiments and adding, thereby that Mr. Hazlett not only lived up to the letter of his agreements, but also to the spirit of them and that he had been a close personal friend. James A. Strute also seconded the motion commenting upon his own happy business relationship with Mr. Hazlett and also his personal relationship. Paul J. Mower added his second and commented that Mr. Hazlett was a good lawyer by the standards of any Bar Association and speaking for the younger members of the Franklin County Bar that Mr. Hazlett had always been willing and ready to help such younger members. John H. Lashley, Jr. also seconded the motion commenting that the Bar had lost a good member and he had lost a good friend. Mr. Lashley also stated that he was

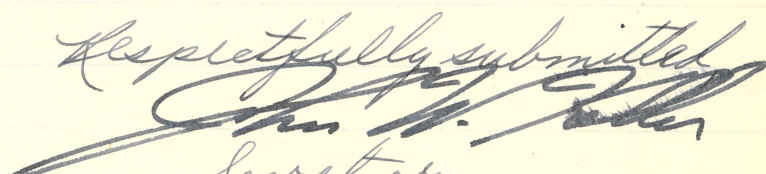

with the Ch
and he was
They
people.
the shadow
He had invaded th
and in this Home a tru
One br
Brother, I
the words God I
write on li bilities
Our lo expressed best to cal
Our
does all th
Our WHEREA
Our
and has con
Will
recompense
Franklin
Judge,
He attend
THERE
hannah Un County Bar
educate h
Brother, Wi
He c
to his fami
by associ Hazlett, hi
which qu
Then
tion, and Crider, I
take in He
since wh
ability.
he never
He
capacity
He
He
was end
He

w suggested the well to emulate dealing with
Edmund C.
d the motion the Bar had but, a good tionally likable ersonally had Edwen D. Stute,
remarking on ords of professional d that he was es of a good Black also endorsing the nd adding, there's ly lived up to ents, but also that he had been
ind. James A. Stute tion commenting business Haylett and lationships.
his second and ylett was a good de of any Bar ing for the younger Klein County Bar
always been help such an H. Lashley, Jr., ion commenting a good member
friend.
ed that he was certain Mr. Haylett was well-known and liked outside of the profession and that he could speak from personal knowledge as to the Waynesboro area.

At this point the President announced that he felt the entire Bar Association endorsed all of the foregoing sentiments and that the motion had been duly seconded. The motion was voted upon and adopted unanimously.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned and the members attended in a body the funeral services conducted for Mr. Haylett.

Respectfully submitted

Secretary

MEMORIAL RESOLUTION

with the Christian Church; he was charitable and gave of his substance and he was kindly to the poor and visited the sick. They never quite leave us, the friends who have passed through people.

the shadow of death into the sunlight above. Once again, death has invaded the ranks of our Bar Association and has called to the Eternal and in this he excelled.

Home a true and faithful member. We think today of our respected

One organization to which he belongs has a memorial expression of sympathy for Brother, William C. Hazlett, who died November 19, 1956.

God has endowed us with certain inalienable privileges and responsibilities which we exercise in his Divine Providence, which are usually

Our loss seems irreparable, yet God in his infinite wisdom always expressed three (3) ways.

best to sell our Brother, and we humbly submit to his Decree, trusting he does all things well.

Our conduct in our avocation or calling in life.

Our conduct with respect to our fellow men in society.

WHEREAS, William C. Hazlett was a true, faithful member of the Bar

Our conduct towards things spiritual.

and has completed his labors here in serving his fellowmen, and as a

William C. Hazlett was born September 30, 1910 in Spring Run, Pennsylvania has received the welcome order of "well done" by the Great Franklin County, Pennsylvania a son of James and Carrie Craig Hazlett.

He attended public schools in Franklin County, graduated from Susque-

WHEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That we, the Members of the Franklin County Bar Association do hereby express our deep sense of loss for our Brother, William C. Hazlett, and offer this sincere expression of sympathy

He came to the Bar a well rounded man by spiritual guidance from home, to his family, and direct that copy of this Resolution be sent to Arlene A. Hazlett, his widow, and Charles R. Hazlett, son, which qualified him in our profession.

These qualities were sufficient for us to admit him to the Bar Association, and after serving his apprenticeship with T. Z. Minehart and Paul M.

Crider, he has been a respected member of our Bar, one whose word we could take in any transaction.

He was admitted to the Bar on the 28th day of May, 1935, since which time he has represented his clients faithfully and with ability. He was fair and honest in his dealings with our fraternity, and he never failed in any services which the Court directed.

He voluntarily and without thought of gain served his country in such capacity as the Government requested.

He served his community as an active member of many Committees.

He was active in fraternal, social, community and charity work as he was endowed with the faculties to serve.

He was a good man spiritually. He gave a boy a home; he was affiliated large suggested the to well to emulate

of dealing with
by Edmund C.
led the motion
the Bar had
member, a good
exceptionally likable
personally had Edwen D. Stute,
on remarking on standards of professional and that he was ties of a good
S. Black also endorsing the
and adding, there
only lived up to ments, but also
and that he had been
friend. James A. Stute otion commenting by business
Mr. Hazlett and relationships.
his second and Hazlett was a good
ords of any Bar king for the younger Franklin County Bar
always been
to help such
John H. Lashley, Jr.,
tion commenting
a good member
and friend.
ted that he was

Sharpe suggested the do well to emulate
of dealing with
Judge Edmund C.
ended the motion
at the Bar had
member, a good
exceptionally likable
he personally had
L. Edwin D. Stute, tion remarking on
standards of professional
and that he was lities of a good
S. Black also
tion endorsing the
and adding, there
only lived up to
ements, but also
and that he had been
friend. James A. Stute
motion commenting
any business
Mr. Hazlett and
relationships.
ed his second and Hazlett was a good
dards of any Bar eking for the younger Franklin County Bar
ad always been
to help such
John H. Lashley, Jr.,
motion commenting
ost a good member ood friend.
tated that he was

with the Christian Church; he was charitable and gave of his substance and he was kindly to the poor and within his ability did much for many people.

He had faith, hope and charity, the greatest of which is charity, and in this he excelled.

One organization to which he belongs has a philosophy expressed in the words that his faults we write upon the sands and his virtues we write on living tablets of love and memory.

Our loss seems irreparable, yet God in his Infinite Wisdom deemed best to call our Brother, and we humbly submit to his Decree, knowing He does all things well.

WHEREAS, William C. Hazlett was a true, faithful member of the Bar and has completed his labors here in serving his fellowmen, and as a recompense has received the welcome order of "well done" by the Great Judge,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That we, the Members of the Franklin County Bar Association do hereby express our deep sense of loss for our Brother, William C. Hazlett, and offer this sincere expression of sympathy to his family, and direct that acopy of this Resolution be sent to Arlene A.
Hazlett, his widow, and Charles R. Hazlett, son.

Respectfully,

John H. Sharpe

Paul D. Mower

Carl M. Pinder